Genealogy Classes—Getting Started

The following class will be held at Collin College this fall at Courtyard Center, 4800 Preston Park Blvd, Plano, TX 75093. The instructor is Barbara Coakley. To register visit <http://www.collin.edu/ce/>

Genealogy, Getting Started (GENE 6500)—whether you are a beginner or a veteran this class has something for you. The class covers identifying your ancestors through planning research goals, discuss finding and analyzing records, writing research reports, organizing research results. We'll discuss basic sources—family mementos like diaries, baby books, photographs, etc.; Federal, State, and non-population census records; newspapers; and birth, marriage and death records.

The class meets Wednesday nights from 6:30 to 9 pm from September 12—October 17, 2018.

September Workshop

The Workshop will be held at Plano Bible Church, 1900 Shiloh Road. Colleen Fitzpatrick will speak on the following topics:

Forensic Genealogy—CSI Meets Roots - Spark your imagination to discover new ways of looking at your family history mysteries.

A Different Kind of DNA Talk—Understand your results, connect with cousins and gain insight into family history through DNA.

Hospital Records—The Most Under-used Resource in Genealogy—Learn what medical records are available and how they can be used to discover unusual information about your relatives.

The Database Detective—Mining databases to solve some of the most compelling mysteries of modern genealogy.

Tracing Our Roots Column

The Tracing Our Roots column published weekly in the Plano Star Courier (available on the paper's website) and written by Genealogy Friends' member Brenda Kellow, covers a different topic or subject each week.

In addition, Brenda announces national events, fee increases in everyday genealogical records, new records added to the Internet and to genealogists' favorite sites.

The past topics are available for several years. Access the site at http://starlocalmedia.com/opinion/blogs/blog_7/.

Brenda will add your name to her weekly announcement when her column appears online if you request it by emailing her at bbkellow@verizon.net. You may also request topics for her to cover.
